Bella Ballerina is Loudoun County's premier dance studios catering to students 18 mo-9 years! With two convenient locations in Brambleton and Leesburg, as well as in-school programs, Bella Ballerina serves a wide variety of needs from classes to dance attire for all ages. Their classes offer a fun and educational experience like no other. Classes are structured around storybook themes, allowing our ballerinas the freedom to explore dance through imagination, movement and fun! They are currently accepting registrations for new students. Visit bellaballerina.com for details!

DR. GILBERT CORELLA, PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR

Retiring from The United States Air Force Band after 25 years of service, Dr. Corella continues to perform as a soloist and clinician at colleges and universities throughout the United States. He is currently the tuba/euphonium professor at George Washington University, and is the founder and Executive Director for the Serapis Foundation, whose mission is to promote music education and appreciation. He earned his Doctorate of Musical Arts degree in May of 2005, as the school's first-ever graduate in tuba performance. Retired Colonel Arnald D. Gabriel and Professor Anthony Maiello are amongst his most influential teachers, as well as Baltimore Symphony principal tubist David Fedderly and the former National Symphony principal trombonist Milt Stevens.
