GIL CORELLA

PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR AND ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Gilbert C. Corella has performed as a soloist and clinician at colleges and universities throughout the United States. He joined the United States Air Force Band, Bolling Air Force Base, Washington D.C., in October 1985. As a tubist assigned to the Ceremonial Brass, he has participated in a broad spectrum of ceremonies in the nation's Capital region, ranging from State arrivals at the White House to full honor funerals at Arlington National Cemetery. Corella has appeared as a soloist with the Ceremonial Brass, the Concert Band and the Chamber Orchestra. Corella is currently tuba professor at George Washington University (Washington, D.C.) and low brass instructor at the College of Southern Maryland (La Plata, MD). His education includes four years at the University of Texas, a Bachelor of Music from Catholic University, and a Masters in conducting and performance from George Mason University. He is currently completing studies for a Doctorate in Musical Arts at Catholic University and is the school's first candidate in tuba performance. This is his second season as Conductor and Musical Director of the Loudoun Concert Band.
